Adults (Sr.) and juniors (Jr.) may ride in the same class but be pinned separately. Adults are riders over the age of 21.

** Class Descriptions ****

Lead line Division: this is for riders who have never competed in a walk trot division. Those in lead line are responsible for arranging with their instructor for their own handler/helper.

Walk Trot Division: rider must not have competed in a canter class before

Beginning Canter Division: Rider must not have competed in a higher division before. Riders will be asked to canter one at a time. Jump courses may be ridden at the trot.

Novice Division: This division is for riders who are comfortable cantering in a group.

Warm up over fences: Riders get to practice over the fences prior to their classes

Pleasure: To be judged on the horse and their behavior and suitability in the ring.

Jumper: To be judged on speed. Penalties are given for knock downs or refusals. Riders get a second round called the "Jump off" if they jump clean.

All riders, in all disciplines, regardless of age, are required to wear safety headgear with chin harness and heeled boots, at all times while mounted. NO EXCEPTIONS! Closed-toe shoes required when handling horses.
